Local Autos Were Stolen

Two automobiles were stolen some time last night from local private garages and the culprits have evidently hit high gear and have succeeded in getting out of temporary reach of the officers. Locks were broken and the cars removed.

Vaughn Madigan, proprietor of the Victoria hotel, lost his big Buick Six. The car was practically new, having ben purchased less than a year ago, and it was stored away in a secure garage beside the hotel, and the place was locked. The lock was smashed, the place entered and the car removed without the occupants of the hotel being aroused, and the machine was stored but a few feet away from the hotel. Mr. Madigan is at a loss to understand how it all happened. He carries insurance against theft.

The other car was that of C. L. Schuck, and was a new Empire, having been purchased only a few months ago. Mr. Schuck's garage is on his own lot at his residence just off Schoonmaker avenue on Ninth street. His garage was also locked and it was supposed securely locked, but the lock was smashed and the car taken out. Mr. Schuck was astounded when he went to the garage and found his machine gone. He put in hurry up calls to the police station and aroused an early search, but no clue could be obtained and as the hours of the day passed, the alarm became greater. His car is insured against theft, and should the car not be recovered, he will be recompensed for the loss. The Schuck machine was valued at about $1,000 with the equipment, while the Madigan machine stands the owner approximately $1,500. It carried license No. 11615 and the motor number was 1368. Both cars were just recently insured against fire and theft through the agency, Duvall & Duvall.

Later—The car of Mr. Schuck was found about 10 o'clock at the corner of Eleventh and Donner where it evidently landed by its own momentum, it being down grade from the garage. Evidently the driver could not get the electric starter to work and abandoned the car and went to the Madigan garage.

Three Cushion Game Interesting

The Olympic billiard hall was crowded to capacity last evening by local pool enthusiasts, eager to witness the first three cushion billiard match ever played in the city. The local team composed of Lebowitz and Gee tried conclusions with the Charleroi team, having as their players Irwin and Russell. The crowd was given plenty of opportunities to cheer the players as after the visitors had secured a commanding lead, the locals started in and overcame the lead only to be beaten out finally by one pin, the game ending 50 to 49 in favor of Charleroi. The game went 98 innings with Lebowitz making high run of 4 for the locals and Irwin duplicating the feat for the visitors.

"Base" Prospering

This office has just received the weekly edition of the Vermillion Ohio News which paper's mast head contains the name of B. N. Henry, who was formerly a Monessen newspaper man. Base is assistant editor and as the assistant does most of the work, we take it that the paper was written by Mr. Henry. Since Mr. Henry is so well known here, we don't mind telling the people that he is mighty prosperous in his new field of labor and that he is climbing the ladder of fame round by round with the top the goal of his ambition.

BIG EXTRA VOTE OFFER WILL CLOSE TONIGHT AT 10 P. M.

Gustava Kruell and Gertrude Landers Tie For First Place

Tonight at 10 p. m. ends the second great vote offer, Saturday night, Jan. 8th, the Overland touring car, Lester piano, and other valuables prizes will be handed to the winners.

This week must be a path maker for the efforts of the public at the last when everyone lines up to cast his or her final vote for whoever they think are the most deserving. By your own efforts this very week you shall be known.

For any one contestant to sit idly by and let this week pass without the effort of his life is inconceivable. If there is a single candidate who thinks he is going to blunder into a prize, he was never more mistaken in his life. This is one of the times when you can not blunder. You will have to let your own actions be the judge whether your efforts of the past weeks will be for nothing.

This week is the week you must do things!

This is the week you must cinch the victory!

This is the week you must use every ounce of energy, every persuasion of your personality to line up all your friends on your side or someone else is going to get ahead of you. A little is as good as a mile. Take the phone. Call up the friend who promised to help you. It is better of course, to see him personally; but if you cannot, the phone will do. Tell him you need help and need it bady. He has probably given a four or six months subscription to someone else. Ask him to give you the balance to make it a year. He intended to all the time, but just waited to see how much enterprise you would show before the contest was over, and just how badly you did want to win.

There isn't a single contestant on this list today but who can win if he or she wants to. The race is so even that these days will count. If you don't win it will be your own fault, for you can't expect your friends to boost much longer if you don't help yourself. It is mighty discouraging boosting someone's campaign, when he don't seem to care a cent whether he wins or not. It is just the same as acknowledging "I don't need a friend anyhow."

Don't let over confidence ruin you this week. This week it is "do or die." You haven't enough votes yet There are hundreds of subscriptions to get. From now on it is the subscriptions which are bound to be the telling factors. If you don't believe it, let the Contest Manager show you. Better win by a mile than lose by a foot. Remember that.

Entertain Class

—The Progressive class of the Methodist Sunday school was entertained last evening at a "Christmas Star" party by J. F. Ettlinger and H. H. Snyder at the home of the latter on Knox avenue. About ten couples were present. The house was decorated with red and white stars arranged in festoons. Mr. Morrell recited several selections and Mr. Snyder rendered a violin solo with Miss Treasure as accompanist. Contests were indulged in and games played. A dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Snyder.

LECTURE SUNDAY

"The Day of Judgment" is the theme of the discourse to be given by Eugene H. Conkin next Sunday at 3 p. m. in Kelly's hall under the auspices of the Associated Bible Students.

The speaker promises to answer from the Scriptures many questions pertaining to the day of Judgment such as—What is its object? When will it occur? How long will it last? Who will be judged, and who will do the judging? Will it be Doom's Day or a Day of Blessing?

E. H. Conklin

The series of Lectures being given by the Bible Students is especially for the public and a cordial welcome will be extended to each and all. All seats free. No collection. 1t

Won Again

The Colonial bowling team of this city continued their unbroken string of victories last evening by defeating the Belle Vernon team on the Belle Vernon alleys by 139 pins in three games. A return game will be played on the Colonial alleys Friday evening of next week. The Colonial scores were as follows:

H. Jarouse, Capt—349.
R. Cipriana—324.
W. Allen—343.

Filler Testified

Harry E. Filler, slayer of Jacob Blank, and condemned to die in the electric chair on January 17, was an important witness in a divorce suit in which the principals are residents of Altoona, Filler's home town.

The condemned man was not permitted to leave his cell in the county jail however, but was allowed to make a desposition to Squire Truxal. The testimony was taken by a stenographer. It was despatched to Altoona and will be used in the divorce trial.

Filler was asked to testify to several incidents concerning the character of the woman in the case.

Subscription List Is Growing Fast

Climbing by leaps and bounds is the circulation of the Independent and while we have made no changes in delivery that will effect the general carriers, it might be stated that the greater portion of the delivery will be made through the Taylor News agency, and that after the records are properly made, prompt and certain delivery will be made. Mr. Taylor is working with the circulation department of the paper to provide the best and promptest delivery of the paper possible and while it might take a little time to get the paper started systematically, this will be done in a manner more satisfactory than ever before. If the paper does not start within a week or ten days after the subscription begins, notice should be given either at the News stand or at the Independent office. This done we will be very much obliged.

Meet Tomorrow

Monessen and Westmoreland Knights of Columbus will attend the meeting of Knights of Columbus to be held Sunday afternoon in Colonial hall, East End, Pittsburgh. State Deputy J. J. Rahilly of Philadelphia, will officiate and the District Deputies of two districts of western Pennsylvania will attend. Following the degree work the candidates and team will banquet at the Rittenhouse, Hotel, East End. At 1 o'clock the visiting officials will be guests at a luncheon at the Duquesne Council home, Bellefield and Fifth avenues, with officers of Duquesne, McKeesport and Braddock councils as hosts.

Monessen Won From Donora

In one of the greatest games of basketball ever witnessed in the Monongahela valley. the Monessen representatives in the Monongahela valley league, defeated the Donora team on the Donora floor last evening by a score of 17 to 16. When the whistle blew in the final period, the score was tied and it was necessary to play an extra period to decide the winners. The locals were handicapped by the absence of Stark, but nevertheless the boys went into the game with a vim and completely outplayed the Donora team. McDowell and Brown secured the most points for the locals while McMahan distinguished himself at guard, keeping the fast Donora forward from shooting on many occasions.

NEEDLESS

It is needless to say very much more about Essanany's great masterpiece which is taking the whole country by storm; "THE RAVEN" in six reels, featuring Henry B. Walthall and Miss Warda Howard. Several thousands of postal cards and booklets will be distributed telling the story of this wonderful picture by Edgar Allan Poe. Watch for them, Tuesday at the Olympic the picture will be shown. 1t

Crime Converted to Virtue

What kind of business is this war thing, anyway, when judged by the laws and morals that govern individuals? Just suppose—

That you're walking down a Monessen street and a fellow bumps into you and then says: "Can't you see where you're going? Get outta my way next time, you bonehead, or I'll hand you one."

This makes you peeved, because it wasn't your fault at all You feel that if you proudly ignored this threat—and the low-brow who uttered it—that you would look like a poor, spineless coward. Maybe you ought to "consider the source," etc. But you notice that other passersby, who have heard it, have paused just long enough to note the result and you recognize one or two of them as your neighbors. You "don't want any trouble." But what the dickens are you going to do—swallow it and go on, or what?

This all goes through your mind like a flash. You feel rather nervous, but you also feel that in order to maintain your standing in the community as a regular fellow, who doesn't want any trouble, but who won't let anyone pick on him (where it can be heard by others at any rate) that it's up to you to say something. So you turn and remark:

"Get outta the way yourself, you big mutt; who do you think you're talking to?" This looks better. The passersby stop. The other fellow is now up against it, just like you were; he's got to do something now to maintain his own standing. Things begin to happen. First thing you know you're in a fight. You hadn't had one in years. But here it is. Without warning.

What's the answer?

Do you maintain your standing by showing that you're not afraid to fight if someone picks on you? Not at all;not at all.

A policeman arrives. He rings for the patrol. You and your opponent are pinched almost before the fight got started—to the intense joy of the crowd that likes a little excitement—whether it's a fight or a pinch.

And from starting with the most justifiable motives in the world—those of merely maintaining your right to be let alone and not picked on—you suddenly are confronted by the fact that to be arrested as the result of a fight is a disgrace. And you get nowhere except into trouble, for it's "against the law" to fight. Our whole theory of civilization is based on that—otherwise they say, we would have anarchy.

So there you are.

But—when one country confronts another, and each refuses to back down because of pride or national honor, and the affair ends in a fight, it's glorious. It's patriotism. It's war. It is not "against the law."

About the only real difference is that instead of one man fighting another man, several millions fight several other milions. Then it isn't disgraceful. It is heroic. And they pin medals on you for doing things they'd lynch you for if you were settling a private grievance.

We're not saying this isn't perfectly natural and correct, because, as most people in this world seem to be willing to fight to prove that nobody can pick on 'em, war must naturally be biologically accurate. But if war is correct you'd think, perhaps, that the custom of legally prohibiting two men from fighting it out is wrong. Both can't be correct.

So, we merely ask as we did at the start, what kind of business is this war thing, anyway, that makes what we usually call an offense against the law, or even crime, suddeny a virtue? There is something. somewhere, in the unexpected realms of psychology that may explain it, but, personally, we haven't met the explanation.

"My shopping's all done!"

"No more Christmas shopping worries for me! And I'll tell you how to do it:

"Curl up comfortably in your easy chair, lay out your Christmas list on the table beside you, together with the day's advertisements, and Bell Telephone!"

Thousands of folks have learned this lesson. Forget the rush and bustle and the headachy, fagged-outness of the old way. Besides, if you forget something, the telephone will "deliver the goods" at the last minute.

It's Christmas time! Use the Bell.

DOUBLY PROVEN

Monessen Readers Can No Longer Doubt the Evidence

This Monessen citizen testified long ago.

Told of quick relief—of undoubted benefit.

The facts are now confirmed.

Such testimony is complete—the evidence conclusive.

It forms convincing proof of merit.

Mrs. B. Wadsworth, 270 Donner avenue, Monessen, says: "I was in poor health for some time and didn't know what was the trouble. I had severe backaches and was bothered by chills. Spots often floated before my eyes. I finally procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the Hirsch Drug Co. and began taking them. I improved from the first and was soon cured." (Statement given Oct. 2, 1907.)

A SECOND STATEMENT

On January 16, 1914, Mrs. Wadsworth said: "I use Doan's Kidney Pills once in a while and a few doses always relieves me."

HALLMARK

Stands For Economy To Merchant and Public

It Stands For Service
It Stands For Honor
It Stands For High Qualtity
It Stands For Lower Prices

Why?

HALLMARK is the trademark of a co-operative company owned by leading retail jewelers of the United States, one only in each city and town. The purpose is to produce Jewelry, Silverware and kindred articles bearing the trademark HALLMARK for sale only in stores of the stockholders. By the co-operation of these retail jewelers each article is produced in large quantities, lessening manufacturing cost.

The manufacturing is under the direct supervision of the company, insuring a high standard of quality and exclusiveness of design. The business is managed by a board of directors composed of retail jewelers and the distribution of merchandise is much more economical than is possible under old methods. Brown's is the HALLMARK store in Monessen and HALLMARK wares may be obtained only at this store.

We have secured a number of specials through the HALLMARK company and have placed them on sale at prices that defy competition. We only ask your inspection of this line and we are positive that you will readily see that we can save you money.

Peace Party Organizing

By wireless to Slasconsett, Mass., Dec. 10—Henry Ford, promoter of the peace ship and peace congress plan to get Europe's warriors out of the trenches by Christmas, turned today to organizing peace committees.

These committees will comprise clergymen, students and others, including newspapermen. Their purpose is to meet corresponding commitees from neutral nations abroad and to co-operate in election of an international peace committee to sit in Copenhagen for the remainder of the war.

This body would receive and offer peace proposals, but its business primarily would be to give wide publicity to peace suggestions in contrast to the "secret diplomacy" of the past.

Some of the peace delegates including Ford and other leaders, probably will attempt to cross Germany from Denmark to Holland. Despite the fact that their passports read only to neutral countries, it is believed that the authorities will not dare to interfere with this mission.

Eddie Nevil Will Meet Fritz Elsner

The Belle Vernon Boxing club wishes to announce that on account of illness, Bud Gregg will be unable to fill his engagement here on Dec. 11th with Nevil, but a favorabte opponent has been found in Fritz Elsner, the fighting terror of Donora, the boy who has whipped the best of them in and around Pittsburgh and bars none of them. Also as all the fans know there is a long standing grudge between these boys. Therefore yau can imagine what it will be like. This fight will also introduce to you Kid Jones, the pride of Monessen who will stack up against Peck Sheetz, Fayette City's barber pug.

The second bout will bring together Kid Winfield of Charleroi and Young Randolph of Pricedale, two boys who love to fight.

The opening bout promises lots or amusement, between Kid Boyce and Johnnie Perri, two promising home boys. Billy Hope, the well known Charleroi boy, will referee all bouts.

PAIGE

The Standard of Value and Quality

And the Greatest of These is Quality

OWNERS of the seven-passenger Paige Fairfield "Six-46" tell us that Three Cardinal Points of Paige Supremacy first induced them to buy this car and now insure their loyalty to and outspoken satisfaction with this car.

The First of these is the Luxurious Comfort of the Fairfield "Six-46"—its full seven-passenger roominess, the unequaled ease of riding, the power and flexibility and reliability of the motor, the amazing and self-evident worth throughout.

The second of these Cardinal Points is the unrivaled Beauty of the Fairfield "Six-46"—its distinctive European streamlines, the smartness and elegance of the French hand buffed leather upholstery and equipment throughout The pride of ownership is universal in this magnificent car.

The Third and the Greatest of these Cardinal Points—in the judgment of Paige owners—is Quality. They have found that Paige Quality is builded, not only into every Paige car, but also into the ideals, the methods and the character of the Paige-Detroit Motor Car Company.

The price of the Paige "Six-46" Touring Car is $1295. So, by the small additional outlay of $250 you can own two cars in one—a touring car for the open season and a handsome closed car for Winter. Never before has so much automobile value been offered for $1545.

Some Kinds of Talking Women.

The woman who tells you all about something in such a way as to leave you in complete ignorance of the essential things which you wanted to know about.

The woman who flatters you about yourself as a screen to give herself the opportunity to talk about herself.

The woman who is silent when she has nothing to say This woman talks incessantly.

The woman who asks you what you think about something and then heads you off from telling by keeping on talking herself.

The woman you marry.—Life.

Temperament In Folly.

The fool in his heart saith a number of things Suppose he happens to be a phlegmatic fool with a fondness for luxury.

"I do not care," saith he, in that case, "to go out into the damp, chill woods and mistake a toadstool for a mushroom I much prefer to get up in the night, in my comfortable flat, and drink out of the wrong bottle."—Boston Journal

Good Prospects.

"What, you want to marry my daughter? Why, you haven't a cent in the world! How do you expect to support her?"

"That will be easy enough. As soon as I'm known to be your son-in-law I can get all the credit I want."—Pittsburgh Press.

A One Sided Rule.

Once when P. T. Barnum was taking tickets at the entrance of his circus a man asked him if he could go in without paying.

"You can pay without going in," said Barnum, "but you can't go in without paying The rule doesn't work both ways."

Hydrofluoric Acid.

Hydrofluoric acid is the best agent to use for removing sand from castings, particularly those of iron and steel, as it attacks the sand and dissolves it, while other acids attack the metal and only loosen the sand so that it falls off

Alaska.

Alaska has an area of 600,000 square miles, one-fifth the size of the United States, which means that it will make fourteen New Yorks and nearly 300 Rhode Islands.

Tempering Steel.

It is significant that in the matter of tempering steel we are no further advanced than our ancestors of some 5,000 years ago.
